

Dan Corr

Dan Corr chairs the Board at Co-Ownership Housing, Northern Ireland's regional body for shared ownership.

Dan is a committed advocate of corporate social responsibility at organisational level, and learning and development at the individual level.

He first joined the Co-Ownership Board in 1991, serving as Honorary Treasurer and Audit Committee Chair for 3 years before becoming Board Chair in 2006.

Dan retired from the Nationwide, the world's largest building society, in 2006 after a 40 year career latterly as NI Area Director.

A founder and hands-on member of the local Business in the Community, an organisation which brings together and challenges companies to increase their positive impact on society, Dan is now HRH the Prince of Wales' Ambassador to Northern Ireland in Corporate Social Responsibility.

He is also a member of the Accreditation Panel for IIP – Investors in People.

Dan is formerly a member of both the Training & Skills Advisory Board and the Northern Ireland General Consumer Council, and a former All Ireland President of Christian Endeavour, a youth training organisation. Other Boards that he has served on over the years include Common Purpose and West Belfast Task Force.
